

HAVING AN Even If FAITH

“Even if the fig tree does not blossom, and there is no fruit on the vines, if the yield of the olive fails, and the fields produce no food, even if the flock disappears from the fold, and there are no cattle in the stalls, yet I will triumph in the Lord, I will rejoice in the God of my salvation.” —Habakkuk 3:17-18

The thought of a trial free life sounds peaceful, but actually it's in the storms, caves and challenges of life where we see our God show up in the most precious and powerful ways! Learning how to pursue God even if our circumstances are not what we would prefer can prove difficult, but how powerful it can be when we come to His feet with nothing but ourselves and watch our God roll up His glorious sleeves and exert His strength for His daughters.
